ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Elam P. Chapin of 1505 Kewalo street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Hortense, to Charles Theodore Littlejohn, Jr. of this city.

CAPT. AND MRS. THOMAS R. HARKER'S DINNER FOR MISS HARKER

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harker of 1540 Kewalo street, honored Miss Dorothy on her eighteenth birthday by inviting guests in to wish the daughter of the home much happiness. The dinner was served on the large side land of the home, which was strung with Japanese lanterns, electric lighted; on the table was a low basket filled with pale shades of asters; tulle in the same tones was a most artistic finish to a very lovely table. Dancing was the diversion for the evening after dinner.

Capt. and Mrs. Harker's guests were Miss Bonnie Scott, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Dorothy Harker, Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus, Dr. Harry Deiber, Lieut. Edward F. Witsell, Mr. Walker Atkinson, Mr. Watson Ballentyne, Mr. Gustav Ballentyne and Lieut. Charles Lyman.

ENGAGEMENT OF TWO WELL-KNOWN YOUNG PEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sack of 1164 Lunalilo street announce the engagement of their daughter, Anne, to Mr. Alfred C. Hagen of this city.

Both of the young people are well-known in the islands. Miss Sack, whose father is a captain in the Inter-island service, was born in the islands. Mr. Hagen has been a resident of the city for eight years, with the firm of H. Hackfeld & Company.

Definite date for the wedding has not been set but it will probably take place late in the fall or early in the winter.

MRS. BEATRICE ISENBERG HONORED

Friday Mrs. John Lucas was hostess at a delightful party honoring Mrs. Beatrice Isenberg, who leaves for the mainland next week. Three tables were used to seat the guests. Each table was simply and artistically decorated with Cecil Bruner roses and at each guest cover was a pretty lei of blue hydrangeas and ferns. Music and pleasant conversation made the afternoon pass very quickly.

Mrs. Lucas' guests were Mrs. Beatrice Isenberg, the guest of honor; Mrs. McGahey, Mrs. Christian Conrad, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Thomas J. King, Mrs. Charles M. V. Foster, Mrs. Franklin Howland, Mrs. Augustus E. Murphy, Mrs. Thayer of Chicago, Mrs. Flora Gilvin, Mrs. William B. Lymer, Mrs. W. Mather, Mrs. Norton of New York City, Mrs. F. W. Klebahn, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. Irene Hallway, Miss Belle Wright, Miss Sara Lucas, Mrs. Sara Dunbar and Mrs. Martha Hobron.

CAPT. AND MRS. EDWIN S. HARTS-HORN'S SUPPER SWIM

Last Saturday evening Capt. and Mrs. Edward Hartsborn of Fort Shafter entertained a company of friends with a swim, supper and a dance afterwards at Heine's. It was a jolly and informal affair. After a swim, a toothsome chowder supper was served. A little later the assembled guests went over to Heine's and enjoyed dancing until a late hour.

Capt. and Mrs. Hartsborn's guests were Capt. and Mrs. Charles E. Wyman, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Dorothy Harker, Miss Lyons, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Lieut. John N. Smith and Lieut. Edward F. Witsell.

A SUPPER AND DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark entertained a company of guests at a supper and dance on Saturday evening of last week. The house and land were very pretty with lovely baskets of ferns and pots of palms. Supper was served on the broad land at small tables, the remainder of the home being cleared of furnishing to make room for the dancers. A jolly evening was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark's guests were Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and Mrs. David Thrum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heiser,

MRS. DAVID THURM'S INFORMAL LUNCHEON

Mrs. David Thrum was hostess on Thursday at a delightful, informal luncheon. The dining room table was prettily decorated in the various shades of hibiscus and was greatly admired. Mrs. Thrum's guests were Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mrs. Louis E. Davis, Mrs. Zumwalt, Mrs. Henry Bicknell, Miss Cooper, Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Mrs. Alexis Gignoux, Mrs. Tom Church and Mrs. George Brown. Needle work was taken up for the hour after luncheon.

ABOUT RICHARD SMART

A millionaire infant, Richard Smart of Honolulu, a descendant of the Parker clan that was much favored when Liliuokalani was still a queen, is to be a fall and winter guest at the Clift with Mrs. E. J. Knight, guardian and youthful-looking grandmother, and Mrs. M. A. Waterbury. The late and former Thelma Parker, a Hawaiian belle of a few years ago, was the infant's mother.—San Francisco Examiner.

MRS. CHARLES BRYANT COOPER'S INFORMAL TEA

On Wednesday of this week Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper quite informally invited a dozen guests in for a cup of tea. Dainty flowers made the broad open land most attractive. The guests invited Mrs. P. Kling, Mrs. Addison, Miss Jones and Miss Culver of New York City, Mrs. Jarrett T. Lewis of Hilo, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs.

A HOUSEWARMING PARTY

Last Wednesday evening Mr. George Ahlborn entertained a company of guests at the Courtland with a very delightful and well appointed dinner. A very lovely basket of lavender sweet peas graced the center of the table and a corsage bouquet was at each guest's cover. After dinner Mr. Ahlborn took his guests to his apartments which have all been remodeled and a large lanai living room added. Here music and cards made the evening hours fly.

The guests enjoying this popular young man's delightful party were Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holland, Mrs. Hannah Palmer, Miss McNamara, Miss Rose Brown, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Mr. Robert Menary, Mr. Bob Purvis, Mr. Clarence Waterman and others.

MRS. LORRIN A. THURSTON'S TEA

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Lorrin A. Thurston and Miss Margaret Thurston honored Mrs. James Lord and Miss Jean Lawson, two popular visitors, by having a few friends in to meet them.

The rooms were very pretty. Baskets filled with roses and pink carnations made them most attractive. The friends invited to meet Mrs. Lord and Miss Lawson were Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Mrs. Alexis Gignoux, Mrs. Stella Pearson, Mrs. Marcia Ireland, Mrs. F. A. Potter, Mrs. John Callaway, Miss Catherine Blake, Miss Janet Sharp, Miss Doris Noble, Miss Monk Hind, Miss Ann Poucher, Miss Bernice Halstead, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Ramona Morgan and Miss Grace Morgan.

MRS. BEATRICE ISENBERG GIVES A POI LUNCHEON

On Wednesday of this week Mrs. Beatrice Isenberg was hostess at a poi luncheon honoring her houseguest, Mrs. McGauley, who arrived this week from San Francisco. The table was a perfect picture with its lovely floral decoration of American Beauty roses and maidenhair fern. Mrs. Emily Laid catered for the luncheon.

Mrs. Isenberg's guests were Mrs. McGauley, the guest of honor; Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Mrs. Jarrett Lewis of Hilo, Mrs. Thomas J. King, Mrs. C. M. V. Foster, Mrs. Charles A. Rice, Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mrs. F. W. Klebahn, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. John Lucas and Mrs. Samuel Baldwin.

A PICNIC AT AHUIMANU

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane gave last Sunday one of their famous country days at the old Macfarlane home over at Ahuimanu. The guests motored over in the early morning and enjoyed a day of complete rest and pleasure. The Macfarlane's are ideal entertainers and one is always sure of a day of rest pleasure as their guests.

Those enjoying the day's outing were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Mrs. Sauni and Mr. James Spalding of Kanae.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY GATHERINGS

The Women's Society of Central Union church will hold its first group of neighborhood circle teas for the fall on Thursday afternoon of this week. The meeting places of the various circles are given below. Any ladies interested in meeting their neighbors in this informal manner, whether they have been previous circle members or not, are cordially invited to meet with the hostesses of their respective neighborhoods. No formal invitations will be issued.

Circle 1, Mrs. R. D. Williams, 2421 Armstrong street.

Circle 2, Mrs. George S. Curry, 2603 Oahu avenue.

Circle 3, Mrs. Edgar Wood, 2030 Kamehameha avenue.

Circle 4, Mrs. Henry Judd, 2162 Atherton road.

Circles 5 and 6, Mrs. J. P. Erdman, Beretania and Alexander.

Circle 8, Mrs. I. H. Beadle, 254 Lewers road.

Circle 9, Mrs. M. A. Madsen, 1028 Green street.

Circle 10, Mrs. Harry Denison, Makiki and Wilder streets.

Circles 11 and 12, Mrs. Doremus Scudder, 910 Prospect street.

Circles 14, Mrs. E. B. Waterhouse, 76 Wylie street.

Circle 15, Mrs. J. S. Donagho, Alewa Heights.

Circle 16, Mrs. E. C. Webster, Kamehameha schools.

These unstuffed gatherings have proved delightful social affairs and the atmosphere of genuine friendliness which they dispense has been especially appreciated by newcomers to the city. By vote of the circles the hostesses are pledged not to serve elaborate refreshments but there are no restrictions on the spirit of hospitality which pervades these meetings. The different groups are taking up various forms of activity, some interesting themselves in sewing tags for ragweaving, others specializing in guest towels and in other forms of industry for the benefit of the treasury of the society.

The annual reception given by this society for the new teachers of Honolulu will take place on September 28, from 3 to 5, and it is hoped that all women connected with the educational institutions of the city, especially those who are newcomers, will put down this date in their engagement books.

A CALIFORNIA HONEYMOON

Miss Gertrude Ripley and Arthur Armitage are coming to California from Honolulu for their wedding tour. They will be married the middle of November. Both the bride and groom elect are well known in society here.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Martin plan to pass part of September at Del Monte. They expect to leave shortly afterward for New York.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Dorothy Harker, in honor of whose eighteenth birthday a dinner was given by her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harker, this week. She is one of the most popular girls of the service here.
